

MathLinks: Core (2nd edition) – Available 2023
Grades 6, 7, and 8
Pilot Now!

The Center for Mathematics and Teaching (CMAT) is offering pilots of our NEW MathLinks: Core (2nd edition) starting in Fall 2022 with one Student Packet from each grade level available (see options below). More packet options will be available starting February, 2023.

A teacher or school site may pilot one Student Packet of MathLinks: Core (2nd edition) for up to 40 students. Any additional Student Packets needed may be purchased for $3.00 each. Along with student materials, teachers will have access to the online materials, which contain the Teacher Edition, answer keys, slide decks to guide instruction, assessments, and other packet resources. Pilot professional development will be provided virtually.

If you are interested in piloting our NEW Core materials, please complete the Pilot Request Form on the next page.
